2010 ASCTS ASM

Thursday 04 – Sunday 07 November

Hamilton Island, Queensland

The Australasian Society of Cardiac and Thoracic Surgeons (ASCTS) 2010 ASM will commence Thursday 04 November with the Nurses Education Day & Advanced Trainees Wetlab.

The ASCTS ASM will run from Friday 05 November to Sunday 07 November.

Combining the contribution of the International Guest Presenters and the involvement of the ASCTS members & guests, there will be a strong educational program.

Hamilton Island is a great destination with excellent conference facilities; please note these dates in your diary.

Further information will be provided in due course.
